

RULES TO LIVE BY

Tragic accidents can happen if the operator isn't alert to the presence of children.

You never know what may be behind you. You should not mow in reverse. If you must reposition in reverse, disengage mower blades, take the time to look behind your machine and maneuver for as short of a period of time as possible.

JOHN DEERE