John Deere Pavilion Hosts Ag Education Day Saturday, July 25

(Moline, Illinois, July 10, 2009) - In an effort to teach children about life on a farm, the John Deere Pavilion in Moline, Illinois, will host its second annual Agriculture Education Day on Saturday, July 25 from 10 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. With a variety of learning stations, exhibits and activities, the John Deere Pavilion's Agriculture Education Day will offer fun and interactive ways for the entire family to become more familiar with the world of agriculture.

Special exhibits will include pedal tractor rides, a hands-on Little Johnny's Farm, blacksmith demonstrations and a petting zoo. A variety of informational booths from ag-related organizations will also be featured, including the Rock Island Farm Bureau, Rock Island 4H & Extension, Quad City Botanical Center, Swiss Valley Farms, Muscatine Community College Ag Department, Fischer's Honey Farm, the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers – Mississippi River Project and Gary Metivier, local author of A Hog Ate My Homework.

The event is open to the public and is free of charge. The John Deere Pavilion is located at 1400 River Road in Moline. For more information, please call 309-765-1000 or visit www.JohnDeereAttractions.com.
